

Friday 22 of July, 1659.

Resolved by the Parliament,

That the Members of Parliament, who have had Letters to attend the Service of the Parliament, or have actually attended since the Seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, Be hereby enjoyned to give their attendance in Parliament every morning at Eight of the Clock, for fourteen Days.

Resolved by the Parliament.

That the Members of Parliament, who have had Letters to attend the Service of the Parliament, or have actually attended since the Seventh of May, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, as are absent, (except such as are imployed upon special Service by Order of the Parliament) be hereby enjoyned to attend this House on, or before this day fortnight.

Ordered by the Parliament, That these Votes be forthwith Printed and Published.

THO. ST NICHOLAS
Clerk of the Parliament.

London, Printed by JOHN FIELD, Printer to the Parliament.
And are to be sold at the seven Stars in Fleetstreet, over against Dunstons Church, 1659.